Because extremist SC lawmakers refused to take part in the new Affordable Care Act ("Obamacare")

- The state refused Medicaid funding for over 300,000 South Carolinians — more than 175,000 are registered voters we plan to talk to.
- More than 1,000 South Carolinians will die this year.
- SC gave away $1.4 billion this year to provide Medicaid to over 300,000 poor citizens, most homeless people, and 13,000 low-income veterans.
- SC hospitals lost $250 million this year to treat the uninsured because that funding went to expand Medicaid coverage — which SC refused.

Join the Healthy Democracy Road Show, a grassroots campaign to educate and mobilize voters before Election Day Nov. 4.
